

What is your cup of tea?

Green Tea

The health conscious yogi. You are a vegan who does school pickup in active gear.

Builders Tea

Capable of stripping paint and not for the faint hearted. No one messes with you.

Chamomile

The insomniacs best friend. You ignore the fact that it tastes like a mouthful of potpourri.

Earl Grey

For the sophisticated. You correct grammar and use words like 'marvelous' and 'ravishing'.

Black Tea

Classic, bold, simple. What you see is what you get.

Chai Tea

Complex and kind, with sweet notes, yet a surprisingly sassy undertone.

Peppermint Tea

Calming and refreshing. Its good to be you.

English breakfast

A traditionalist. There's no experimenting here. Your name is probably William, Margaret or Giles.

Coffee

Tea is for wimps.
